PUBLIC RELEASE (Approval required by Public Affairs Office)	X
ADMINISTRATIVE OR OPERATIONAL USE. To protect technical or operational data or information from automatic dissemination under the international exchange program or by other means. This protection covers publications required solely for official use or strictly for administrative or operational purposes. This statement may be applied to manuals, pamphlets, technical orders, technical reports, and other publications containing valuable technical or operational data.		X	X	X	X
CRITICAL TECHNOLOGY. To protect information and technical data that advance current technology or describe new technology in an area of significant or potentially significant military application or that relate to a specific military deficiency of a potential adversary. Information of this type may be classified. (All technical documents using the reason “Critical Technology” or “Direct Military Support” also must add the ITAR Statement below the Distribution Statement being used.)		X	X	X	X
DIRECT MILITARY SUPPORT. To protect export-controlled technical data of such military significance that release for purposes other than direct support to DoD (to bid or perform on a Government contract) may jeopardize an important technological or operational U.S. military advantage. Designation of such data is made by competent authority in accordance with DoD Directive 5230.25. (All technical documents using the reason “Critical Technology” or “Direct Military Support” also must add the ITAR Statement below the Distribution Statement being used.)					X

"REASON"	STATEMENT
	A	B	C	D	E	F	X
FOREIGN GOVERNMENT INFORMATION. To protect and limit distribution in accordance with the desires of the foreign government that furnished the technical information. Information of this type normally is classified at the CONFIDENTIAL level or higher in accordance with DoD 5200.1-R		X	X	X	X
PREMATURE DISSEMINATION. To protect patentable information on systems or processes in the developmental or concept stage from premature disclosure that might jeopardize the inventor's right to obtain a patent.		X			X
PROPRIETARY INFORMATION. To protect information not owned by the U.S. Government and protected by a contractor's "limited rights" statement, or received with the understanding that it not be transmitted outside DoD or the U.S. Government without the permission of the proprietary rights owner.		X			X
SOFTWARE DOCUMENTATION. Releasable only in accordance with DoD Instruction 7930.2 and AFI 33-114.		X	X	X	X
TEST & EVALUATION. To protect results of test and evaluation of commercial products or military hardware when such disclosure may cause unfair advantage or disadvantage to the manufacturer of the product.		X			X
SPECIFIC AUTHORITY. To protect information not specifically included in the above reasons and discussions but which requires protection in accordance with valid documented authority such as Executive Orders, classification guidelines, or DoD or DoD-Component regulatory documents. When filling in the reason cite "Specific Authority (identification of valid documented authority)."		X	X	X	X
